

Ben Portus BSc BVSc MRCVS

Ben graduated from the University of Bristol in 2003 having intercalated in Equine Science after the second year of his vet degree. He worked initially in Finland doing equine breeding research and lecturing at the University of Helsinki. On returning to England he became an assistant at Paton & Lee Equine Practice in Essex, before completing an Internship at Rossdales Equine Hospital, Newmarket. He has lectured on fluid therapy and equine anaesthesia at Writtle College, Essex and talked about equine emergencies at last years BVNA Congress. He is now a partner at Paton & Lee Equine Practice.