

Clare Spencer BVetMed MRCVS

Clare Spencer graduated as a Veterinary Surgeon from the RVC in 1984. She is especially interested in medicine, nutrition, client care and treating pets as part of the family. Clare has practised in the UK and France and currently works part-time in practice and part-time as a nutritional technical adviser but, wherever she works, she knows she can't do her job properly without the support of a good nursing team.