

Dawn Platten VN MBVNA

Dawn Platten is an experienced, qualified veterinary nurse. She worked in general practice both in the U.K and Australia, and at Battersea Dogs Home before moving into veterinary nursing education.

Dawn is a published author having written for the 'BSAVA Manual of Practical Animal Care', which was published in 2007.

Dawn currently teaches veterinary nursing theory and has gained her Cert Ed qualification. She is also a qualified NVQ Assessor and Internal Verifier.

Dawn lives in West London with her husband, two children and a variety of animals.