

Fiona Whelan

Fiona started her career working in the rehabilitation of difficult horses, and later for the RSPCA as a re-homing coordinator, specialising in matching rescue dogs to new owners. After studying at De Montfort University (1995) she opened her own training and behaviour establishment in Lincolnshire, before joining Dr Roger Mugford's Practice in 2002 as a behaviour specialist and centre manager.

Fiona is a member of the Canine & Feline Behaviour Association and the Association of Pet Dog Trainers.

Fiona lives in Berkshire with her partner Andrew; their 3 horses, 3 dogs and 2 rescue ex-battery hens.
