

Francesca Riccomini BSc(Hons) BVetMed CCAB MRCVS DipAS(CABC)

An experienced small animal clinician Francesca gained a Post-Graduate Diploma in Behaviour Counselling from Southampton University in 2001. She now specializes in behavioural medicine and runs a behavioural referral service based in south west London.

Francesca is an ASAB Certified Clinical Animal Behaviourist, a member of the FAB's Behaviour Expert Panel and of the Association of Pet Behaviour Counsellors.

The author of three cat books, she also writes behaviour related articles for a number of publications aimed at the veterinary profession and pet owners as well as speaking to a variety of audiences on a range of behavioural topics.