

John M Blackwell BVSc MRCVS

John qualified from Liverpool in 1985. After an initial spell in Preston, Lancashire, he moved to mixed practice in Ellesmere, Shropshire. He is currently senior partner in an 8 person practice in Ellesmere with branches on the Wales/Shropshire borders.

John is mainly involved with production animals within the practice. Council member and Executive officer of the British Cattle Veterinary Association since 1996 culminating in holding the office of BCVA President 2009-2010. John is also BVA's nominated director of Animal Medicine Regulatory Training Authority (AMTRA). He has represented BCVA on many occasions and has been instrumental in many of its consultation responses particularly in regard to medicines.