

Karen M Coumbe MA VetMB CertEP CertVA MRCVS

Karen Coumbe studied at Girton College, Cambridge, & qualified in 1984. Worked in mixed practice for 5 years and then set up Bell Equine in 1989. Long term interest in dermatology, when not examining itchy ponies and scabby horses, or busy with other clinical cases, she is also the veterinary correspondent for Horse & Hound. Published variously, including the Equine Vet Nursing Manual (2nd edition in pipeline), spoken at meetings and congresses when barrel scraped really hard.

Been involved with the EVN qualification since it started and is an RCVS examiner.

Appointed as an official veterinarian for the FEI in 2005. She was part of the vet team at the 2008 Olympics in Hong Kong.