

Samantha McMillan VTS(Anesthesia) DipAVN(Medical) RVN MBVNA

Sam qualified whilst working in a small animal general practice. Sam has worked in several university and referral hospitals over the last 6 years. She gained the Diploma in Advanced Veterinary Nursing (Medical) in 2006 and the Veterinary Technician Specialist in Anaesthesia in 2007. Until recently Sam has been working as an anaesthesia nurse at Davies Veterinary Specialists before transferring to the position of head theatre nurse at The Queen's Veterinary School Hospital, University of Cambridge. Sam's main interests include anaesthesia, surgical nursing, pain assessment and management and critical care of surgical patients.