

Shailen Jasani VetMB MA MRCVS

Shailen graduated in 1999. Since then he has spent most of his time working in both first opinion and referral Emergency and Critical Care practice, including 5 years at the Royal Veterinary College. Shailen completed an ECC residency there in June 2009. He has a particular interest in helping to progress the development of ECC in the non-referral setting. He has written a book on emergency medicine and contributed to various publications, and is also the community manager of an on-line ECC network.
